He assured that the State Government will provide the best facilities and requested all the sportspersons to be more dedicated and to work hard, not only for the State but the country in future events.

Short speeches were shared by medal winners Viseyie Koso and Sezovelu Dozo about their experiences in the recently concluded championship.

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF PACKAGING CONDUCTS TRAINING ON PACKAGING IN DIMAPUR

In order to spread awareness about the importance of packaging and also to promote the export market, by way of innovative package design and development, standardization, etc, the Indian Institute of Packaging held a one-day capacity-building training on Packaging of Fresh and Processed Food Products of Nagaland under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav at Tourist lodge, Dimapur on 4th of August 2022. APC and Commissioner & Secretary, Y. Kikheto Sema IAS along with Director of Horticulture, Dr. R. Elihung Lotha, Director of Agriculture, M. Ben Yanthan and IEDS Joint Director & Head of Department MSME-DI Dimapur, Taliwati Longchar attended the programme.

Addressing the gathering, Y. Kikheto Sema said India being the second largest producer of goods, packaging becomes vital. He encouraged the people of Nagaland to focus on producing their goods since Nagaland has a high potential for horticulture, agriculture, and organic goods. He said better packaging helps reduce loss and damage, and wastage of products and produce. It enhances product value and also helps to expand the market within and outside, and an appropriate package also contributes to environmental protection and ecological balance.

Deputy Director & Regional Head IIP-Kolkata,

Bidhan Das, who was also one of the resource persons, stated that there is a need to develop an alternative packaging system for foods that would be easily acceptable to the market for various commodity items and the requirement of using mathematical models capable of predicting the shelf life of the packaged product in its real condition of use. He said the Food Safety Act Packaging Regulation 2018, Plastic Waste Management (Amendment) Rules 2022 and the Food Safety Act- Labelling and Display Regulation 2020 are also to be followed by the Food Business Operations. While speaking about the Institute, he said it has taken steps to disseminate information on the latest trends and technology in the field of packaging to micro, small and medium-scale entrepreneurs.

The other resource persons were Senior Manager Sales & Marketing Reliance Industries Limited, Kolkata, Bivas Das and Assistant Director, Indian Institute of Packaging, Kolkata Centre, Rishu Gautam.

NAGALAND LAUNCHES PHASE-II VACCINATION MISSION ON FMD

The Department of Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Services (AH&VS), Nagaland under the aegis of the Nagaland Livestock Development Board (NLDB) on 5th August 2022, officially launched the second phase of the pivotal scheme, National Animal Disease Control Programme on Foot and Mouth Disease (NADCP). It was launched by Dr. Nsanthung Ezung, Director, AH&VS at the NLDB Office, Dairy Farm Complex, Lerie, Kohima.

It is pertinent to mention here that the NADCP was launched by Prime Minister, Narendra Modi on 11th September 2019 which envisages control of FMD and Brucellosis diseases in livestock by 2025 and freedom status by 2030.

Director, Nsanthung Ezung in his address, urged all the department officers and field staff to be sincere and ensure all the mandate of the programme by vaccinating the entire eligible cattle and buffalo population against the FMD in the State. The disease is a highly contagious viral vesicular disease of cloven-hoofed animals such as cattle, buffaloes, sheep, goats and pigs etc. which leads to reduction in milk yield, decreased growth rate, infertility, reduced working capacity in bullocks, and trade embargo in the international market. Control of FMD can be achieved by mass vaccination of susceptible livestock repeatedly at regular intervals till the incidence of the disease comes down.

Ezung also urged the farmers to take full benefit of the programme and vaccinate their livestock against FMD. Further, he emphasised that the mission can be accomplished only through the support and cooperation from the district and village authorities, and requested them to extend full support and cooperation to the Department, while carrying out vaccination in their respective jurisdiction.

1st STATE OPEN JAVELIN THROW CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1st State Open Javelin Throw Championship 2022 to commemorate the Gold Medal won by Neeraj Chopra in Tokyo Olympics 2020, organized by Dimapur Athletics in collaboration with Nagaland Athletics, was conducted at Government Higher Secondary School Ground, Dimapur on 6th August 2022.

ADC, Dimapur, Mhalo Humtsoe said that some reasons as to why we are not excelling in sport is the coming up of new technologies as children are all caught up with it, and they do not want to go outdoor for physical activity, and the mindset of the society including parents, encouraging children to go for white collared jobs. She hoped that the championship would motivate the young people to take up sports and inspire them to self-discipline, build confidence and develop the personality to achieve their goals in life.

Under the Men Open Category, Shilutemjen bagged the first position while Medo Linyu and Jeyalo Kath bagged the second and third position respectively, and under the Women Open category, Ruulhoubeinuo bagged the first position while Vithonu Theyo and Netolu Medeo bagged the second and third positions respectively. Under Boys U-16, Peramdihei Kereu bagged the first position while lteisape Reunim and Tsibulie Nagi bagged the second and third positions respectively, and in the Girls U-16 Category, Temjenrenla emerged first while Litika Singh and Arenpenla bagged the second and third positions respectively. Altogether 122 athletes participated in the championship. District Sports Officer Dimapur, Tepulezonu Tetseo graced the closing ceremony as the special guest.

VALEDICTORY PROGRAMME FOR FTII TRAININGS HELD AT DIPR

Advisor, Information & Public Relations (IPR) and Village Guards, S Keoshu Yimkhiung with Secretary IPR, Maria Yanthan, IPR officials and trainees at the valedictory programme for Film & Television Institute of India trainings at the Directorate of IPR, Kohima on 10th August 2022.

Valedictory programme for Film & Television Institute of India (FTII) trainings was held at the Directorate of Information & Public Relations, Kohima on 10th August 2022.

Advisor, IPR & Village Guards, S. Keoshu Yimkhiung addressing the programme, said that if such trainings are held regularly, the younger generation can make good use of the opportunity and it will go a long way in molding their career.

Secretary, IPR, Maria Yanthan IAS exhorting the gathering, encouraged the participants to explore their creative side and not only focus on getting government jobs. She also said that Nagas are very talented and encouraged the youths to venture out from their comfort zone and work hard and make a name for themselves.

Additional Director, IPR, Dzüvinuo Theünuo chairing the programme, said that IPR is one of the oldest departments in the State and since its inception, the Department has been playing a vital role as the public relation agency and publicity wing for the Government. She said that FTII, commemorating the country-wide celebrations under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, decided to advance the cause of film education by conducting online short courses free of cost for scheduled tribes participants. She mentioned that since the training was conducted through online mode, it required a lot of technological support and uninterrupted internet connectivity. Therefore with the support of IT&C Department, the first training on basic smartphone filmmaking was conducted at Directorate of IT&C and the remaining three trainings were held at Directorate of IPR. She said that IPR is a technology driven department and the trainings have helped in enhancing the capabilities of the people working in the department and the trainees at large.

Joint Director, Asangla Imsong, sharing on the overview of the programme, highlighted in brief the profiles of the resource persons for Smartphone Film Making (Ajmal Jami), Screenplay Writing (Sudipto Acharyya), Screen Acting (Anita Salim) and Film Appreciation (Avinash Roy and Jasmine Kaur Roy). She further informed that the second phase of the training will be held eventually.

Trainees sharing their experiences, said that the trainings have taught them how through smartphones, one can create outstanding contents and through the lens of a phone, it can help us frame the world, its characters and scenarios for different audiences. The trainees were coached on teamwork through assignments like short video making, filmmaking, film grammar, screenplay editing from where we discover their own methods and voices.

A total of 51 certificates were issued to all the participants by FTII upon successful completion of the trainings. A short film titled 'Rest' which was directed and produced by the trainees, was screened during the programme.

PD, H&FW INSPECTS MEDICAL COLLEGE SITE

e-SANJEEVANI TELE-CONSULTATION PLATFORM FOR NAGALAND

Healthcare delivery system has come a long way in providing primary, preventive and curative healthcare with its three-tier system viz. Primary, Secondary and Tertiary. Ayushman Bharat lays the foundation of upgradation of existing primary healthcare facilities into Health and Wellness Centres (HWCs) and also provisioned the IT enabled consultation and service delivery through telemedicine. Ministry of Health & Family Welfare (MoHFW) with the support from Centre for Development of Advanced Computing (C-DAC) launched eSanjeevani, a national telemedicine platform to virtually connect patients, irrespective of where they live with qualified and skilled health providers.

In Nagaland, it was launched on 6th August 2022 by the Minister for Health & Family Welfare, S. Pangnyu Phom. USAID's flagship health system strengthening project NISHTHA, implemented by Jhpiego is supporting the State of Nagaland for operationalization of HWCs and smooth implementation of eSanjeevani Tele-Consultation in the State. State Health Department endeavours to strengthen the service delivery through the eSanjeevani application by providing requisite training and other support to the health care workers at all the facility level.

The Tele-Consultation platform has two modules:

1. Community Health Officers (CHOs) to Doctor: To enable patient assisted consultations by the CHOs to the Doctors at the HWCs (eSanjeevani AB-HWC). Patients requiring treatment should visit the Health and Wellness Center - SC, whereby necessary examination and investigation will be done and tele-consultation can be initiated through the Community Health Officers.
2. Patient to Doctor: It allows patients to consult doctors from the comfort of their homes (eSanjeevani OPD). For Patient to e-Sanjeevani enables a patient residing in rural areas to avail quality healthcare services. It extends the reach of specialized healthcare services to masses in both rural areas and isolated communities. It will also enable the health practitioners to give e-prescriptions. The timing of the eSanjeevani OPD services initially will function from 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. on official working days.

State government officials led by Advisor, Industries & Commerce and Employment, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship, Imnatiba called on the country representatives of UNIDO at New Delhi on 17th August 2022.

With an aim to spur industrial development and growth in Nagaland, Advisor, Industries & Commerce, Employment, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship, Imnatiba, Senior State Government officials, and representatives from Think Through Consulting (official advisors to the Industries & Commerce Department, State Government of Nagaland) met the country representatives of United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) at New Delhi on 17th August 2022.

Advisor Imnatiba, along with the Director of Industries & Commerce, Vitsutho Nyuthe discussed the scope of industrial development in Nagaland. The meeting addressed the need to foster industrial development in Nagaland, leveraging the State's unique resources and human capital. In view thereof, the Government of Nagaland has officially written to UNIDO to seek assistance and support for inclusive and sustainable industrial development in the State.

Imnatiba said the Government of Nagaland is committed to the immense potential of the State for building specific manufacturing value chains, and Nagaland's unique natural and cultural resources can be unlocked by nurturing citizens' entrepreneurial capacity and diversification of industrial activities in the State. 'With an objective to revitalize the growth of trade and commerce in Nagaland, a new policy is therefore being formulated to replace the two-decade old State Industrial Policy,' he added.

'Nagaland is one of the eight Northeastern sister states with a wide topography. The State has made tremendous reforms in terms of fiscal management, personnel policies, and institutional infrastructure. With 70% of the Naga population engaged in agriculture and allied activities, the State now seeks support to usher in much-desired growth in the industrial sector. Think Through Consulting, as official advisor to the Industries & Commerce Department, is delighted to assist the State Government of Nagaland in their drive to make accelerated industrial growth a reality in the State,' said Global Managing Partner, Think Through Consulting, Parul Soni.

UNIDO is the specialized agency of the United Nations with a unique mandate to promote and accelerate sustainable industrial and economic development. Think Through Consulting (TTC) is a multi disciplinary professional services firm that specializes in providing advisory support for sustainable development initiatives.

UNION FINANCE MINISTER NIRMALA SITHARAMAN ON A THREE DAY VISIT TO NAGALAND

Union Minister, Finance and Corporate Affairs, Nirmala Sitharaman visited Nagaland from 22nd to 24th August 2022, to attend the Nagaland Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) & Investment Conclave 2022, and to launch various initiatives.

NAGALAND CSR & INVESTMENT CONCLAVE 2022 AT KOHIMA:

Union Minister for Finance and Corporate Affairs, Nirmala Sitharaman graced the inaugural programme of the Nagaland Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Investment Conclave 2022 as the chief guest at NBCC Convention Centre, Kohima on 22nd August 2022.

Sitharaman, narrating her conversation with the Chief Minister of Nagaland, said the anxious voice of the Chief Minister saying that Nagaland does not get enough CSR investment has made it possible to bring all the business leaderships and investors together in the form of CSR Conclave. She urged the cooperates and industries to naturally choose Nagaland although it would take a little bit of effort. On mandatory CSR investments, she said the CSR board takes the decision and depending on social activity, funds are provided, and CSR happens when investments take place. She added that without the mandatory rule, a lot of investors have come in to check up, and the Conclave should be the stepping stone for many more investments.

Nirmala expressed the need to set up CII Training Centres for the young energetic people to get skilled along with certificates and to take leadership role in those sectors. She said organic vegetables and fruits are in great demand which the State produces but aggregating, storing and finding market is a challenge. She also stressed on identifying one product in each district with common facilities and digitise marketing - it can be agriculture or handicraft product. She also suggested to bring the Atal Tinkering Lab, a flagship initiative of Atal Innovation Mission of NITI Aayog. She viewed homestays in Nagaland as a major potential where domestic tourists can experience the natural lifestyle of the Nagas since a lot of youth in India are very mobile.

To ensure CSR reaches Nagaland, the Union Minister suggested a task force of Naga youth to move around the country and to ensure building Brand Nagaland. She expressed appreciation to the companies and investors who had brought in investment, and ensure giving resources for equal development of all the states in India.

Nagaland Chief Minister, Neiphiu Rio stated that in seeking CSR investments, the State Government is not trying to replace its own development initiatives. He opined that the Conclave will deepen engagement with the private sector and banks, encourage partnerships between local entrepreneurs, start-ups and established companies across the country. He said that in addition to CSR, the State Government is expecting companies to explore the untapped investment potential of the State in various sectors such as forest, agriculture, education, tourism etc. On the banking front, he hoped that the banking track of the Conclave would result in more and hassle free credit off take from banks and would also contribute in the development endeavours and also promote budding entrepreneurs. He hoped that the Conclave turns into a regular event to help realize the development goals.

President designate, Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), R. Dinesh, speaking at the inaugural event, emphasised on the need to develop the connectivity of the region to neighbouring countries and also with the rest of India, so as to enable the development of the North East Region. He further acknowledged that the focus should now be shifted to local development and skill building and prepare the ground for further manufacturing investment in the region. He proposed that the CII would like to set up a logistics and supply chain training school in partnership with the CII institute of logistics and the logistics sector skill council, provided that the Government of Nagaland is willing to give land to set up the institute.

Secretary, NEC, Moses Chalai speaking on North East Regional perspective said that although much has changed in the region, there are a lot to be done especially when it comes to the need for private investments to come into the region, not just to bring about economic development but also to create job opportunities for the people.

The valedictory programme of the Nagaland CSR and Investment Conclave was held at NBCC Convention Centre Kohima on 23rd August 2022. CEO, Investment and Development Authority of Nagaland, Alemtemshi Jamir in his welcome address, stated the sole purpose of the CSR conclave is to make the people aware about the opportunities and avenues available in the private sector and also give them a glimpse of the bigger things growing globally around us. Jamir expressed hope that the corporate world will continue to show their interest and come forward to work with the people of Nagaland and change the small state of Nagaland into a global location. Minister for Planning & Coordination, Land Revenue & Parliamentary Affairs, Neiba Kronu highlighted in brief the history about the struggle of the people of Nagaland and the political issues that has hampered the State's Development since the time of the country's independence. He however concluded that the issues would soon be resolved and urged the Corporate Houses not to have any apprehensions about investing in the State. He also mentioned that the Government of Nagaland would soon bring new reforms to the existing Land Laws in the State so as to ensure ease of doing business in the state and making the State Investment Friendly.

NIRMALA SITHARAMAN LAUNCHES VARIOUS INITIATIVES DURING THE NAGALAND CSR AND INVESTMENT CONCLAVE:

Union Minister for Finance and Corporate Affairs, Nirmala Sitharaman during the inaugural programme of the Nagaland CSR and Investment Conclave, launched various initiatives at NBCC Convention Center, Kohima on 22nd August 2022.

Some of the projects launched included Credit Outreach Facilitation Unit, Tailoring Training Unit, Selco-Medical Unit Solarization, CII Partnership on ICONN 2020, Blood Segregation & Storage Unit, Skilling and Animation Centre, Mobile Science Labs, Adobe Creative Academy, Model Nursing College through Public-Private Partnership, Entrepreneurship Development Centre, CT Scan, Dialysis Unit and other High Impact Interventions, Histopathology Unit at Naga Hospital Authority Kohima, Upgradation of Nursing School in Kohima and Dimapur into Nursing Colleges, Solar Cold Storage.

BANKER'S CONCLAVE/CREDIT OUTREACH PROGRAMME:

Banker's Conclave/Credit Outreach Programme was held at the Capital Cultural Hall, Kohima on 23rd August 2022, with Union

Minister, Finance and Corporate Affairs, Nirmala Sitharaman gracing the programme, in the presence of Governor, Nagaland, Prof. Jagdish Mukhi, Chief Minister, Nagaland, Neiphiu Rio and his colleagues, senior government officials and bankers.

Union Minister, Nirmala Sitharaman highlighted the important role played by Bank Mitras in a state like Nagaland where even a block headquarter becomes difficult for villagers to reach, and expressed her happiness that Bank Mitras are serving its purpose well in the State. She encouraged the banks to have a few more of them so there is greater access for the villagers. She commended the State of Nagaland for performing well in schemes like Atal Pension Yojana, MUDRA and Stand Up India schemes. Sharing about Start Up schemes, she stated that the PM wants young minds in rural areas to come up with innovative ideas which can be skilled up and which will need support, for which the banks were instructed through their branches to give one SC, one ST and a woman similar assistance which is given to Start Ups. She noted that the scheme is fairly well accomplished in Nagaland under which 523 accounts have been already given and 112 crores disbursed through loans for SCs and STs.

The Finance Minister, while noting that with 70% of the State's population in agriculture, and Kisan Credit Card (KCC) target for Nagaland being 2.3 lakh farmers, including animal husbandry and fishery, she pointed out that Nagaland has reached a target of 70,000 only. She called for more inclusion of farmers in KCC and suggested for banks to go the extra mile and include those who are involved in animal husbandry. She also requested the government representatives to also help in identifying the eligible beneficiaries. She also suggested for banks to saturate by districts, focus on a district, announce in advance by using every medium and reach out to all eligible beneficiaries of the schemes that are provided by banks, and also to take in more banking correspondents if necessary.

Thanking Union Minister, Finance and Corporate Affairs for initiating and getting the Credit Outreach programme organized, and for setting into motion a bouquet of initiatives which will move Nagaland towards 100% financial inclusion, Chief Minister, Neiphiu Rio said that through this credit outreach, the banks will be extending credit of Rs. 223 crore under various schemes as well as retail loans to the people of Nagaland. He stated that large proportion of the credit by banks, other than that extended under various Government schemes, has been for consumer goods or housing loans. While this is essential, it is also imperative to increase the credit flow to those who require it for running their enterprises. This is a critical area where banks have to put in more efforts, and the State Government is ready to support them and address their concerns, he added.

Rio acknowledged the pioneering role that State Bank of India (SBI) has played in establishing bank branches in the remotest of places in the State, and expressed hope that the SBI will continue their leadership role and expand their activities, for which the Government stands ready to extend all support. He said that the State Government has also been supporting private banks to expand their credit base, and resultantly, the deposit base of banks such as HDFC Bank, Axis Bank and ICICI Bank have expanded. He urged them to cover the remoter towns, and especially the unbanked 26 of the 74 blocks. He stated that the North East Small Finance Bank has expressed to intent to extend loans of Rs. 150 crore to small entrepreneurs and farmers, and also open up to 10 branches in the State. He assured to support the private banks in their credit outreach activities, to facilitate in expansion of their credit portfolios so that they take on a greater share of priority sector lending.

Chief Secretary, J. Alam stated that in modern times, one cannot imagine achieving development goals without the active participation of banks, and highlighted that Nagaland is working in close partnership with the banks in all possible ways. He said that the Chief Minister's Micro Finance Initiative is one such programme that will greatly help finance many businesses and activities and will mitigate the unemployment problem to some extent.

Congratulating the State Government for organizing the programme, Secretary, Finance Services, Gol, Sanjay Malhotra called for more credit and financial inclusion outreach programmes to be conducted, as there is tremendous scope and potential for various financial products including credit.

NIRMALA SITHARAMAN LAUNCHES VARIOUS INITIATIVES DURING THE BANKERS' CONCLAVE:

NEIPHU RIO INAUGURATES NAGALAND OLYMPIC & PARALYMPIC GAMES 2022

Chief Minister of Nagaland, Neiphu Rio inaugurated the 2nd edition of Nagaland Olympic & Paralympic Games 2022 at Capital Cultural Hall, Kohima on 22nd August 2022.

Speaking on the occasion, Rio said that the objective of organising the event is to bring unity and understanding among the Nagas through sports, and the inclusion of Paralympic as part of this event is to give equal opportunities and privileges to People with Disabilities (PwDs). Sports bring fame, honour and recognition and the countries clinching more medals at international level dominate the world, he said, and that winning more medals at the top level indicates advancement and maturity of the citizens. Nowadays, sports is neither a mere entertainment nor a part-time activity but it is accorded the most important place in the world due to immense honour and recognition in it.

We are lagging behind others in sports especially in comparison to our neighbouring states, due to lack of proper sporting infrastructure. However, keeping this concern in mind, the Government is trying its best to provide basic requirements in all the districts, Rio said. He said the State is clinching medals at national level but yet to win any medal at international level though Nagas are second to none in terms of talent. Therefore, he urged and encouraged the sportspersons to work hard and focus on their dreams without quitting.

The oath was administered by an Archer & Arjuna Awardee, Chekrovolu Swuro.

premier institution, imparting quality education to students, many of whom are from rural areas. He added that JNV Kohima is fortunate to have good facilities and infrastructure including experienced teachers and staff. He called upon the students to dream big in life and work hard to achieve the goal as there is no shortcut in learning. He suggested the students to take guidance of parents and teachers in deciding the choices in their career ahead, and further advised them to develop the practice of building a strong will power.

Prof. Mukhi also urged the teachers to give their utmost best, for the growth and welfare of the school and most importantly for nurturing, moulding and upbringing the students, inspite of all the shortcomings.

Principal, JNV, Prem Kumar Singh presenting a brief introduction of the Vidyalaya, highlighted that it is a premier institution of learning with a residential and co-educational set-up in full compliance with the norms and guidelines of the Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti, an autonomous organization under Ministry of Education, Department of School Education & Literacy, Government of India. Established in the year 1988, he pointed out that it is the only institution of its kind in the entire district of Kohima. From 1993, the Vidyalaya was upgraded to senior secondary level which has both Science and Humanities Streams.

He said that JNVs emphasizes on ICT, a well-maintained and well-equipped Computer Lab is available with more than 40 computers. The Vidyalaya is also equipped with a Smart Classroom in which teaching-learning transaction is made through ICT aided system and Power-Point presentation facilitated by a well-maintained projector and scrollable screen.

The programme concluded with a short interaction with the students and teachers of JNV.

GOVERNOR, NAGALAND GRACES THE 32nd GRADUATION DAY OF ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), JAKHAMA

Governor of Nagaland and Assam Prof. Jagdish Mukhi graced the occasion of the 32nd Graduation Day celebration at St. Joseph's College Jakhama on 22nd August 2022, felicitating 1259 Under-Graduates and 102 Post-Graduates.

Mukhi in his address commended the College for leaving an indelible mark in the legacy of education in Nagaland. He mentioned that St. Joseph's College was accredited with Grade 'A' by the NAAC in 2016 and further added that the college seems to have left no stone unturned in providing quality higher education to the youth of Nagaland as well as neighbouring states. He also urged the students not be afraid to put themselves in uncomfortable situations as these moments will propel towards the ultimate purpose in life and when faced with a new challenge, to seize the opportunity immediately rather than saying 'tomorrow will be a good day to start.'

Mukhi said that an individual's contribution matters in nation building as long as one sincerely serves from the heart. He appealed to the students to set out into entrepreneurship and become job providers rather than job seekers and start up ventures. He mentioned that it is very unfortunate that our students even after post-graduation from universities, prepared to join as employees in government sector on contractual basis. Mukhi stated that, Nagaland stands on the launch pad of significant change and development and the youths of today have a great responsibility towards enhancing this progression of this hugely beautiful and resourceful state.

The Governor also conferred the Graduation Day Award 2022 to eleven different graduates.

SENIOR SP KOHIMA LAUNCHES GOOD SAMARITAN AWARD AND ROAD SAFETY CELL UNDER DEF KOHIMA

Senior Superintendent of Police, Kohima, Kevithuto Sophie with officials and recipients of Good Samaritan Award at SP Office’s Conference Hall, Kohima on 9th August 2022.

The award ceremony and launching programme of the Good Samaritan Award and Road Safety Cell under DEF Kohima were held at SP Office’s Conference Hall, Kohima on 9th August 2022.

The Good Samaritan Award was awarded to Tsiese Basa Youth Organisation and UBC Isilong Hau, DEF Kohima during the programme. Senior Superintendent of Police, Kohima, Kevithuto Sophie, IPS gave away the award to the recipients.

Tsiese Basa Youth Organisation was awarded the Good Samaritan Award for their selfless act of kindness in stepping out to help the 27 victims of ill-fated Tuensang bound Dimapur bus, which met an accident on 5th June 2022 at around 7:45 hrs at Tsiesema village near Dzudza bridge. The organization not only administered first aid but shifted the injured persons to the nearby hospitals for medical attention, thereby potentially saving many lives.

UBC Isilong Hau, DEF Kohima was awarded the Good Samaritan Award for rushing a minor boy, who was knocked down by a car at TCP Gate, Kohima town to Oking Hospital for medical attention on 26th October 2021, despite him being off duty on that day.

Launching the programme, Senior SP Kohima, Sophie said that in his past 28 years of service, many unsung heroes who contributed to solving day-to-day social crimes and problems were left unnoticed or unacknowledged. He said that the launching of the programme was a humble beginning to acknowledge such unsung heroes who took the extra mile in saving lives in times of unfortunate incidences, and expressed hope that it will reduce road rage and accidents in days to come.

Addl. SP (Pro. & Trf.) Kohima, K. Soriso giving a brief note stated that the Good Samaritan Award was instituted and launched under the initiative of Sr. SP Kohima and Dy. Sp. Traffic Kohima to celebrate and honor those heroes who are lending helping hands and creating a positive impact on society. He also said that the Road Safety Cell under DEF Kohima was also an initiative of Sr. SP Kohima to create awareness of basic rules and safety principles among the vehicle users to meet everyday road rages and also to sensitize the citizens about road safety issues. Soriso further highlighted the various responsibilities of the road safety cell during the programme.
